SOUTH ASIAN CANADIAN
DIGITAL ARCHIVE

1990 O.B.C. recipients

1990 O.B.C. Recipients

HEATHER JAMES (VANCOUVER)

World class mountaineer, born in Ontario in 1956, moved to Vancouver at 11 where he launched his amazing medical career. Almost every spreading 35 climbs worldwide, treks and works in the Tibet are not fraught greatest for European family values. In 1987 Heather was Prince of Wales Charity Concert. Member of the 1986 Tibetan chart with his Alpine Rescues. Who not so long ago stand the world to reflect wilderness. Brian Adams is lending his name to worthy causes from the environment to the preservation of Vancouver's buildings in Vancouver.

EDWARD J. ANDREWS (VICTORIA)

Edward O.C. He teaches, engineer, forester and land surveyor. Spent his entire career exploring and mapping the forested area of Vancouver Is. Surveyor-General for service valuable from 1971 to 1988. Awarded the OBC for his development of an entire, comes among of Ft. Longstreet recognized on the Nelson River studies in Africa. Continues to be involved producing certificate on B.C.'s heritage and development. In his 87th year.

HENRY P. BELL-IRVING (CHAMPION)

A distinguished author, member of the Dunbrain Highlanders, war veteran in Italy and Northern Europe. Awarded DSM for bravery. Successful farmer in real estate, past president of the Vancouver Real Estate Board. Served as a member, officer and chairman of many charitable and service organizations. He served as Lieutenant-Governor from 1978 to 1982.

DAVID A. BOYES (VANCOUVER)

Actuarial retired director of the Cancer Control Agency of B.C. One of the world's leading authorities on cervical cancer. Responsible for instituting the Pap smear program in B.C. which served as a model for the rest of the world. As a result of his work, the incidence of cervical cancer between 1950 and 1982 is 80 decreased by 75%. Dr. Boyes has been a consultant to many employers and countries throughout the world. He presides over the design and construction of the A. Burnett Boyes Clinic in Vancouver, one of the finest cancer clinics in North America. He has published over 80 journal articles and testified to speak in many countries.

HERMON C. BRUNK (VANCOUVER)

His life has been dedicated to conserving our natural environment. He combines his love of nature with his expertise as a scientist. He taught biology, botany, scientific range management and forage management at UBC for 35 years. He has served in advisory capacity during the construction of the Alaska Highway. He was appointed to the Task Force of the Environment and the Economy. Director of the Federation of B.C. Naturalists, the Nature Trust of British Columbia and others.

MYRTLE CHATSZA (WEST LAKE)

A member of the Ahousat Band, Myrtle Chatsza declined many years ago to stop caring children, since then she has been a driving force in keeping her community among the highest rate of sobriety. Ahousat late is now a role model for other communities across Canada and the US. She initiated local services, she led the profitable Tofino-Ucluelet Tourism Company received and recognized as a credit for university courses at UBC. She received an Honorary Doctor of Laws at U.B.C. in 1991. Myrtle Chatsza has travelled with workshops and training sessions not only in Canada but in the U.S. and Australia.

JOSEPH H. COHEN (VANCOUVER)

A successful businessman Vice President of Dow Canada who has become an outstanding philanthropist. Locally, nationally and internationally. Driving motivation to and support for philanthropic, charitable and educational activities. A respected community leader, he has raised millions of dollars for a variety of worthy causes regardless of their religious or ethnic background.

IDENTIFIER
2022_15_02_011