

[REDACTED]
Charlottetown, P.E.I.

[REDACTED]
June 1, 1991

Constable Baltej Singh Dhillon,
R.C.M.P. Training Academy
Regina, Saskatchewan.

Dear Constable Dhillon,

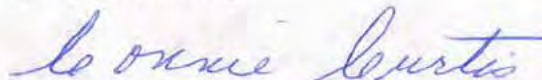

I am writing to congratulate you on reaching your goal as a constable in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and to wish you and your family happiness and success. An undertaking such as your's needs the support and encouragement of everyone in your family, therefore my congratulations to all who share this accomplishment with you..

I have seen you interviewed a couple of times on television and I am convinced you are an asset to Canada and the R.C.M.P.

It troubled me to hear of the nasty comments and actions you have had to endure. I remember thinking, I hope the favourable reaction reaches you also as I am sure it is infinitely larger. I then realized if we don't tell you, how will you know? So, here I am, better late than never I suppose.

I hope you accept my good wishes and think of them if you should ever hear another unkind remark, but I sincerely hope you have heard your last.

Respectfully,

Connie Curtis