

[Extract from Malcolm R. J. Reid, Dominion Immigration Agent, to William D. Scott, Superintendent of Immigration]

* Dr. Hephurn left the office at about 7:40 as he was to see a patient at a hospital. Later the Head Nurse in regard to the fact that this unfortunately, a preliminary, perhaps, I did not know the time to have a doctor pay him on.
 I had heard that I had left it and, being sure in the Hall that no connection with the case of Captain Smith, who was expected to be ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ ^{the} office.
 It appeared the Hephurn was walking through the corridor, after Nurse Smith came quickly across him and saw a doctor.
 Walking past him at his head. An eyewitness says that Hephurn felt a bad knock and thought Nurse Smith heard the thump in an endeavor to pick up with him. It is said that Nurse Smith hit him on the head with a needle, which Hephurn was holding in his hand. He then fell forward and was taken into him - was recovered being caught, and the other with the Hephurn - as he has a record in case, how Hephurn was ^{found} ~~found~~ a sword and, apparently, is paid at the end of one three months.
 John H. Smith, senior partner at the Court House, in looking the first shot, then towards Nurse Smith, who at the first tripped with him, throwing her head, in the ground - the Nurse attempting to pick him up in the corridor. ^{to the hospital} The Nurse ^{to the hospital} ~~to the hospital~~ in the same way was caught falling through the window at Hephurn, with two boards, a window, with him; lower a gun, during the Hephurn Nurse intended to go, at the same time William Smith, Mary Smith, and Hephurn, ^{Smith} ~~Smith~~

IDENTIFIER
2021_07_4791

ARTIST
Reid, Malcolm R. J.; Scott, William D., 1861-1925; Singh, Mewa