

[Handwritten life history]

upto

He came from India in 1806 and worked 1807 in C.P. Rail & Vancouver and went back in the end of 1807 after living 2 years in India, he brought his family with him in 1911. The little Temple in Vancouver was built in 1911 and he was the first priest in this Temple. In those days Indians were not allowed to live in this Country but he brought his family with him. There were 2 daughters with them in 1911. They both a delight to Ottawa to request for the entry of all the East-Indian families in Canada. But the Canadian Govt. in those days told them to go to England.
Then they went to England and applied for five men. They appealed over there. The English Govt. told them to go to India & appeal over there as ~~they~~ British subject by birth & you can appeal over there. Then they went to India from England. But Indian Govt. (British Govt.) told them to go to Canada & appeal over there. Then they came back to Canada. There was our Rev. from Honk Kong. Name Gota Wern. Coming East India from Honk Kong. Because they were working for East Indian Community they were seen. London N.Y.C. thinking that they are all involved in this. No one knows about them for about four weeks when they were at Honk Kong. East India came, the Canadian Govt. went to and those people to

IDENTIFIER

2022_08_02_005