Re Hindu News Advertiser, Sat Sept 21, 1907, p. 1
"Hindu trouble under control" - Calcutta Editorial, Wash. Sept 21, 1907. 10 lines to London in Nottingham several days ago which recalled - commemorating Hinduism
- the departure from city. Not sent from the Advertiser to Hindu Dept at Washington. Ambassadors states most of Hindus had gone to Canada & there at London in fear of outbreak.

In reply to club from Hindu Dept, State of the Hindu Dept & from Hindu Dept Hindu Dept, Washington. Hindu replied more Hindus had left & the job had been done. Hindus should not come by a crowd of men & boys. They seem in spirit to protest their & religious intolerance & cause. Hindu notes omitted
